Important Rules During the Christmas Season

Please read these rules carefully and in full before your appointment. They are binding for all Christmas bookings and everyone entering the studio. Please also inform all accompanying persons. Violations may result in additional charges or refusal of entry.

1. Clean Indoor Shoes Are Mandatory

The studio may only be entered wearing clean indoor shoes. Outdoor shoes are not permitted. Entry may be refused without suitable indoor shoes.

2. Complete the Rental Agreement at Home

Please bring the fully completed rental agreement. If it is completed on site, the time required will be deducted from your booked studio time. No extension will be granted.

3. Bring Identification

A valid identity card or passport is required. Without proof of identity, entry may be refused and the appointment may be cancelled if necessary.

4. Do Not Alter Decorations or Sets

Christmas trees, furniture, decorations and accessories must not be moved, altered or rearranged. Please use all sets exactly as you find them and leave everything unchanged.

5. Food, Fire and Sparklers Are Prohibited

Food, open flames, sparklers and similar items are not permitted in the decorated areas.

6. Damage Will Be Charged

The Lessee will be charged for damaged, broken or heavily soiled decorations, furniture or other studio items.

7. Appointments with Children

Parents or accompanying persons bear full responsibility for their children. Children must not jump on beds, pull at decorations or touch, move or damage objects. The responsible accompanying persons are liable for any damage caused.

Please respect these rules and the customers who follow you. Everyone wants to find the studio clean, fully decorated and exactly as shown in the pictures.
